TRENDS - Looking Ahead to 2022 and the Satellite Industry Policy and Regulatory Environment

Welcome To TRENDS – A regular feature of the SIA newsletter highlighting the latest trends and happenings in the Satellite Industry. This month's column is from the desk of Tom Stroup, President of the Satellite Industry Association. Tom briefly looks back on the previous year. More importantly, he looks forward to 2022, focusing on the critical relationship SIA and the industry has with domestic and global regulators and policy-makers at the FCC, NTIA, NSC, ITU and more - a relationship that can help shape the future of the commercial satellite industry.
